Champagne Cocktails

The Duke of Wellington Cocktail €45.00
 It is said that the Duke enjoyed a glass of Champagne and would add a dash of Irish Mist if he was feeling a little homesick. This is our tribute to one of our oldest residents. A mix of luxurious rare Irish whiskey, honey and spices, rejuvenated by the addition of Champagne.

Champagne Classic €22.00
 This recipe appears in the first ever cocktail book, The Bon Vivant by Jerry Thomas, in 1862, but became more popular when in 1899, a gentleman by the name of John Dougherty won a cocktail competition with a very similar recipe called the 'Business Brace'. Cognac, sugar, angostura bitters, topped with Champagne and crowned with Grand Marnier.

The Flirtini €22.00
 A delicate balance of raspberry and Champagne. Raspberry vodka, pineapple juice, raspberry puree, shaken and topped with champagne.

French 75 €22.00
 Believed to have been created in Harry's Bar in 1925, although Harry lays credit to Bucks Club in London. It is named after the gun used in WW1 by the French army. Gin, lemon juice, sugar syrup, topped with Champagne and garnished with a twist of lemon.

Bellini €22.00
 Originating in Harry's Bar, Venice circa 1945, this delicious drink is named after the Venetian artist Giovanni Bellini. This drink could only be made between May and September, the season of the white peach. White peach puree, crème de peche and topped with Champagne.

The No.23 Recommendations

Red Breast 12 year	€7.00
--------------------	-------

Taste: Strongly flavoured and assertive, a blend of spicy, oily sherry and toasted notes evident
Finish: Satisfying, long, the complex flavours lingering on the palate

Jameson 12 year	€8.00
-----------------	-------

Taste: Sherry richness, nutty flavours, mild woody undertones
Finish: Rich and lasting

Bushmills 16 year	€18.00
-------------------	--------

Taste: Malt roundedness, rich fruit and nuttiness peep through the sherry and port structure
Finish: Sweet fruit salad character, light traces of peat

Midleton Rare	€20.00
---------------	--------

Taste: The taste sensation is unique, with almonds, dried herbs, fruits, honey and floral nuances all evident.
Finish: The lingering finish has a touch of toasted oak wood in the background.

Jameson 18 year	€22.00
-----------------	--------

Taste: Wonderfully mellow and smooth, a mouth full of complex flavours – fudge and toffee, spice, hints of wood and leather, a gentle cherry nuttiness, vanilla - giving a unique taste sensation.
Finish: A long lingering finish carries the theme of wood, spice and toffee right through the end

Bushmills 21 year	€22.00
-------------------	--------

Taste: Smooth, sweet, succulent – Marzipan and glazed almonds.
Finish: The sweetness and nuttiness of Bushmills Whiskey and of Madeira are an enjoyable double-act. A light dusting of ginger and slight smokiness add to the finish.
