

THE MERRION PANTRY, FIVE STAR FARE TO TAKE HOME

Hark the Herald Christmas Bells ring, for The Merrion Pantry has arrived bearing all things delicious for a decadent Christmas at home. Following a successful first year in 2010, The Merrion Pantry will once again be available at the hotel. Subsequently this year there will also be a bespoke offering taking up residence at Ireland's leading department store, Brown Thomas Dublin. From Thursday, 1st December shoppers will be able to take a slice of the luxury home. Customers can choose from The Merrion's signature Plum Pudding (€18), Brandy Butter (€6), Cranberry & Orange Sauce (€6) or the irresistible aromatic Mulled Wine (€15).

Created by the hotel's Executive Head Chef Ed Cooney, The Pantry items are not only delicious to eat, but they're elegantly designed too – a delightful range of festive labels and packaging has been created to accompany the goodies in The Merrion Pantry. The subtle palette of Georgian colours reflects The Merrion's listed architecture and sophisticated interiors.

The full range of sweet and savoury products is available to purchase at the hotel including a particular favourite, The Merrion Hamper (€60). This consists of the Plum Pudding and Brandy Butter, Mulled Wine, Cranberry & Orange Sauce, Red Onion Marmalade, Lemon Oil, Gingerbread Man and a bar of The Merrion's Signature Chocolate. Guests can also purchase the Plum Pudding (€18), Brandy Butter (€6), and Mulled Wine (€15) individually.

The Merrion Pantry items are available to order online now, or from December 1st direct from The Merrion Hotel and the Living Floor of Brown Thomas Dublin.
