

The Merrion Hotel: The Home of the Five Star Wedding

In association with Brown Thomas

For any couple embarking on planning their wedding day, the prospect of the monumental task ahead can sometimes be a daunting one. The Merrion hotel is delighted to present its first luxury Wedding Showcase in the hotel's beautiful surroundings on Sunday, March 28th 2010 from 12 noon to 6pm. Its team of experts will no doubt make the couple's experience of the pre-wedding period enjoyable and rewarding, removing the stress attached to the big event.

The Merrion is exclusively collaborating with Ireland's leading luxury retailer, Brown Thomas, to showcase an array of premium and international brands to create the perfect wedding, including Vera Wang, The Wedding List, Jo Malone, Bobbi Brown, Menswear Made to Measure and labels from the store's coveted Designer Rooms and Shoe Rooms. This unique offering allows engaged couples the opportunity to experience the world's most celebrated brands associated with weddings at one venue.

The Wedding Showcase at The Merrion will be an intimate and exclusive event, offering couples the opportunity to experience the luxury and style for which award-winning five star hotel is famed. Executive Chef at The Merrion Ed Cooney and Head Sommelier Damien Corr will also be on hand to offer advice to couples in creating their bespoke wedding menu.

Couples will be able to view the hotel's opulent honeymoon suites, while also meeting with a selection of the country's finest photographers, musicians and florists, who will be showcasing their services to ensure every aspect of the couples special day is unique and unforgettable. And with the Leading Hotels of the World on hand to suggest idyllic five star honeymoon destinations, the Merrion hotel's Wedding Showcase really does offer everything under the sun.

A couple's wedding day is something unique to them, a rare and precious moment that will provide intimate memories to cherish and treasure for ever. Together, The Merrion hotel and Brown Thomas offers this exclusive Wedding Showcase, where romance can be given priority, and the bride and groom can remain assured that their special day will rest in safe, secure and sensitive hands

The admission of €10 (per person) or €15 (for 2 people) will include a glass of champagne and canapés to enjoy while meandering through the Georgian private salons and experiencing what The Merrion Hotel Wedding Showcase has to offer.
