MERRION
DUBLIN

Count on the luck of the Irish for a romantic Valentine's Day

January 2012 - The beautifully appointed Merrion Hotel set in the heart of Georgian Dublin makes for the perfect escape for a peaceful and romantic weekend à deux. Couples can enjoy use of the Tethra Spa, cosy up by the roaring fire in the drawing rooms or enjoy a candlelit dinner at the Cellar Bar restaurant with February stays ranging from €125 to €205 person based on two people sharing.

There is an offer to suit all couples - 'Lasting Love...' valid throughout the month of February, includes an overnight stay in a Garden Wing room, chilled Rosé Champagne and full Irish breakfast. 'All Loved Up...' for stays between 11-15 February, includes all of the previous, heart-shaped chocolate on arrival and a divinely romantic candlelit five-course Valentine's Dinner in the atmospheric Cellar Restaurant. On Valentine's Night couples can opt for 'Real Love...' - which, apart from an overnight stay, includes chocolate on arrival, a Champagne breakfast and late check out - The Merrion promises not to disturb!

With an array of culture rich, historical streets to meander through and explore, Dublin is romantic all year long. With its outstanding art collection, elegant but relaxed interiors, and superb food, The Merrion is the ideal sophisticated Valentine's bolthole.

About The Merrion

The Merrion was created from three Grade 1 Listed townhouses in Upper Merrion Street in the heart of Georgian Dublin. The hotel is opposite Government Buildings and steps away from The National Gallery and The Natural History Museum. A short walk leads to the "golden mile" of lively pubs, shops and restaurants dotted around St. Stephen's Green. Grafton Street is a leisurely stroll away for all the latest designer shops. The Merrion is a member of The Leading Hotels of the World.
