

The most stylish Egg Hunt this Easter at The Merrion Hotel

Relax, unwind and enjoy the Easter Break this year at the one of Dublin's most elegant Georgian addresses. With eighteenth century architecture and design preserved throughout, the luxurious Merrion hotel encapsulates an extensive art collection, intimate drawing rooms, the award winning Cellar Restaurant and a very private 18th century style garden where the flowers in bloom and resident ducks in the pond will make for a perfect Easter backdrop. The Merrion team has carefully created three magnificent packages to suit the needs of both young and old.

If the thrill and excitement of the Irish Grand National is what tickles your fancy then The Merrion's Off to the Races package will be a perfect fit. Included are one night's accommodations in a deluxe double or twin room in the stylish Garden Wing, along with full Irish breakfast and two tickets to the Irish Grand National at Fairyhouse Racecourse on Easter Monday. Guests can return to the hotel post-races to celebrate their winnings at the lively Cellar Bar set in original wine vaults. The Off to the Races package is priced at €140 per person sharing on the night of 4th April 2010 and is subject to availability.

To add some fun and games this Easter, The Merrion's Easter Family Fun package (2nd April 2010 – 6th April 2010) can enliven the Easter holidays. A family of two adults and two kids can enjoy the best of Dublin's attractions as the Merrion is perfectly located close to all of the capital's top amenities. Enjoy two nights accommodation in interconnecting double and twin rooms in the Garden Wing, a full Irish breakfast each morning and Easter themed amenities. To top it all off, let the kids loose to take part in an Easter Egg Hunt in the Merrion's private gardens on Easter Sunday. Spend quality time with the family for €960 per family for two nights, subject to availability.

Those wishing to create the perfect setting for a deserving break in the lavish surroundings of the Merrion can avail of this excellent Easter at the Merrion package (2nd April 2010 – 5th April 2010). Indulge this Easter with overnight accommodation in a beautiful Garden Wing room, Easter themed amenities and a full Irish breakfast the next morning. This package will help to make lasting family moments to remember with rates from €110 per person sharing.

For reservations at The Merrion, please contact the hotel directly on telephone: 00 353 1 603 0600, facsimile 00 353 1 603 0700, email info@merrionhotel.com or visit the website at www.merrionhotel.com.

For further information, please contact
Laura Dwyer @ Kennedy PR on 01 476 2000
Or email ldwyer@kennedypr.ie.